

The Mooresville Museum serves as the primary resource for matters of regional significance by illuminating our past, interpreting the present and envisioning the future.

Membership Information

Membership to the Mooresville Museum depends on public participation to fulfill its mission. Please consider becoming a Friend of the Mooresville Museum.

Why become a Friend of the Mooresville Museum:

- To share the significant history of our region;
- To preserve the artifacts of the area;
- To provide a place for others to learn about our rich history;
- To communicate to Town officials and the community that the Museum is important and deserves their support.
